VPELA EVENT

Wed 3 Apr - Planning for Suburban Jobs in the New Economy.

Victoria's economy is forecast to generate demand for another 1.5 million jobs by 2051. As our city grows more and more of the future jobs growth will need to be accommodated outside the Central City. What are the forces that are changing how and where work gets done, and what are the implications of these forces on how we plan out cities? This seminar will explore practical strategies for increasing employment in middle and outer suburban areas - How might we cater for a flexible work future and the many new and emerging workspace models that will support this?
