

Figure 7: Flora and Fauna Plan

Mt Fyans Wind Farm
Environment Effects Referral

- |  |                                   |                              |
|--|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Flora and Fauna                                     | WTG                        | Existing transmission |
| Threatened fauna habitat                                   | WTG                               | 500 kV                       |
| Listed vegetation communities and threatened flora species | Internal tracks                   | Roads                 |
| Project site   | Substation                        | Other                        |
| Wind turbine development area                              | Transmission development envelope | Highway                      |
|  |                                   | Arterial                     |

All reasonable care has been taken in collecting and recording the information shown on this map. Entura assumes no liability resulting from errors or omissions in this information or its use in any way.
© 2017 Hydro Tasmania.

