

-  Identified growth area
(Subject to detailed investigation and planning processes)
-  Identified industrial growth area
(Subject to detailed investigation and planning processes)
-  Residential area
-  Commercial area
-  Industrial area
-  Special use or public use land

-  School
-  Public land
-  Lakes and reservoirs
-  Rivers
-  Freeway
-  Highway
-  Arterial road
-  Minor road
-  Railway line and station

Note:
Further detailed investigation and planning for growth should consider natural hazards (including bushfire, flooding and erosion), environmental assets (including water and assets identified in regional catchment strategies), cultural heritage assets (including Aboriginal and historic heritage) and natural resources (including Extractive Industry Interest Areas, other mapped earth resources and timber plantations).

